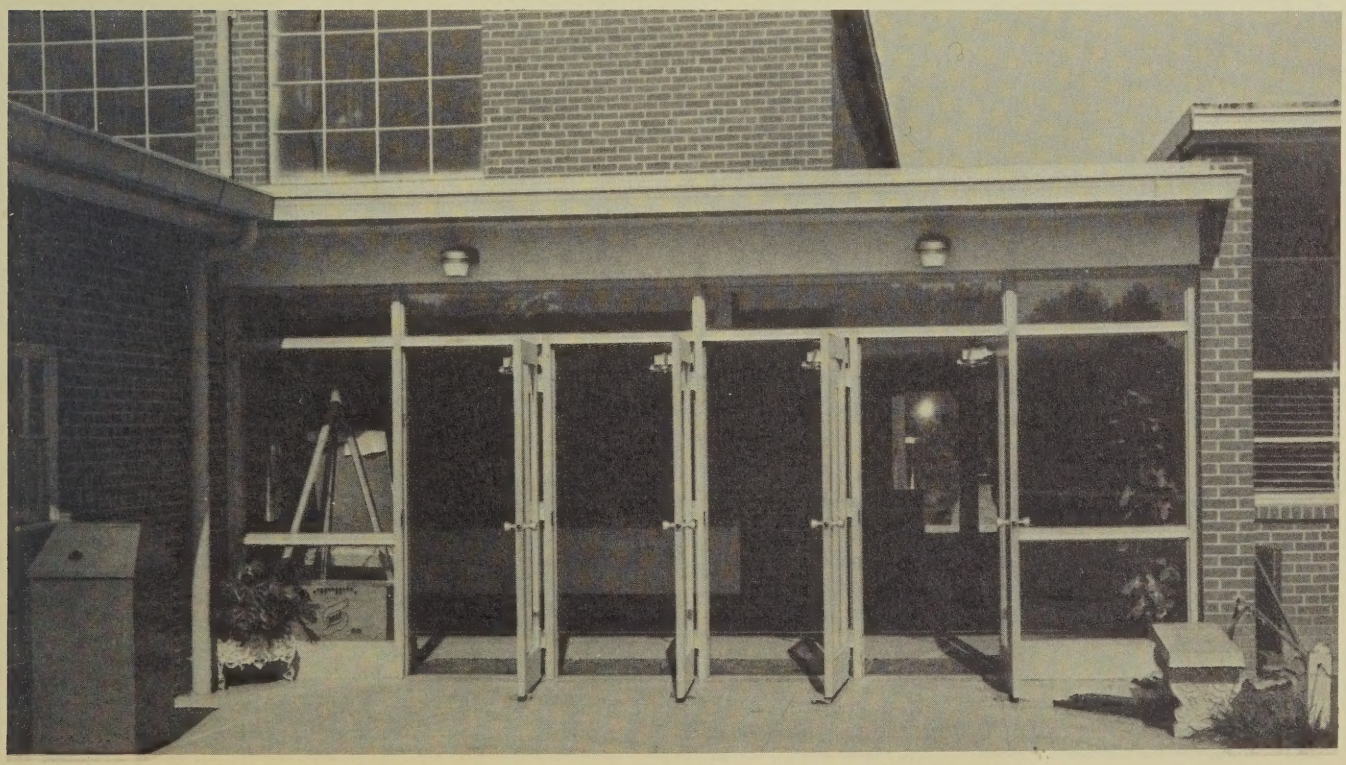
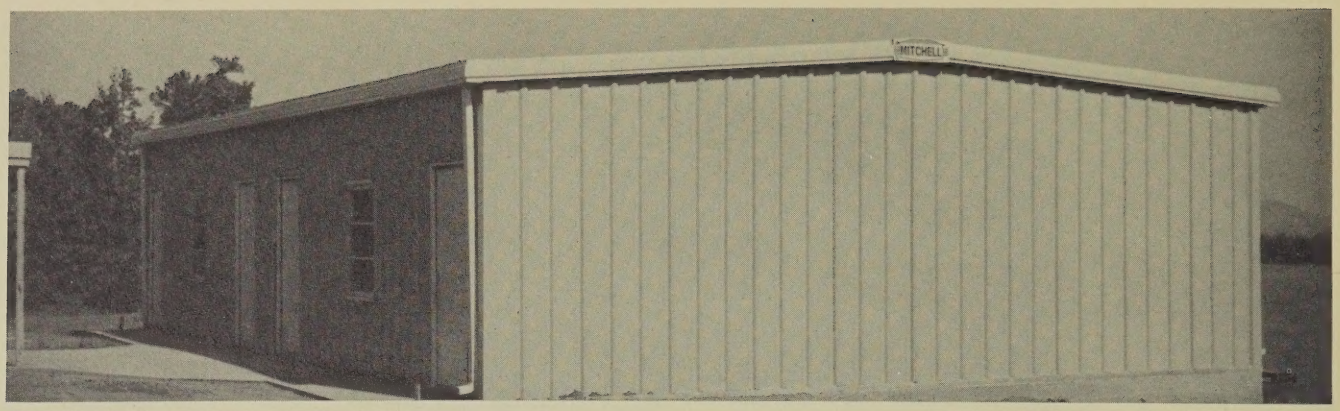
FIGHTING EAGLE

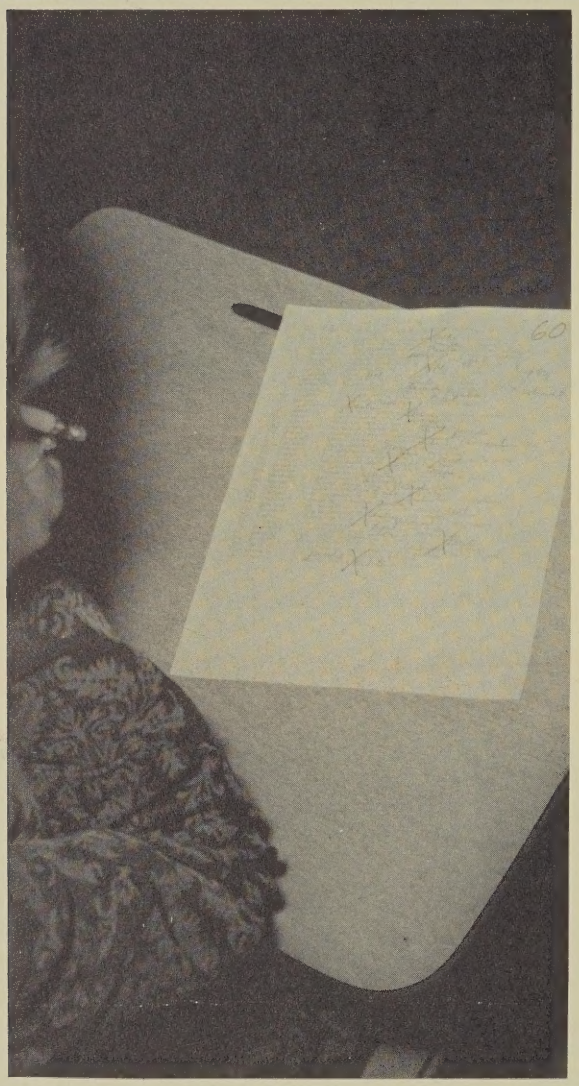
REFERENCE
Library Use Only

BK2008-0130-006

Located in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains, George Hildebran School offers a warm and friendly atmosphere to all. In August of 1968 her doors were swung open ready to receive students for the first time this year.







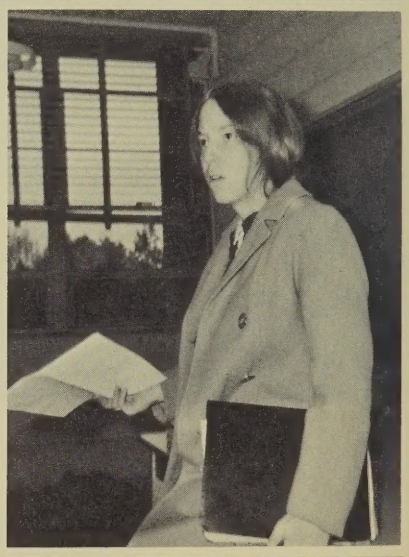
Met with,

new ideas,

new people,

and

new things,



the students responded

to all phases of school life.

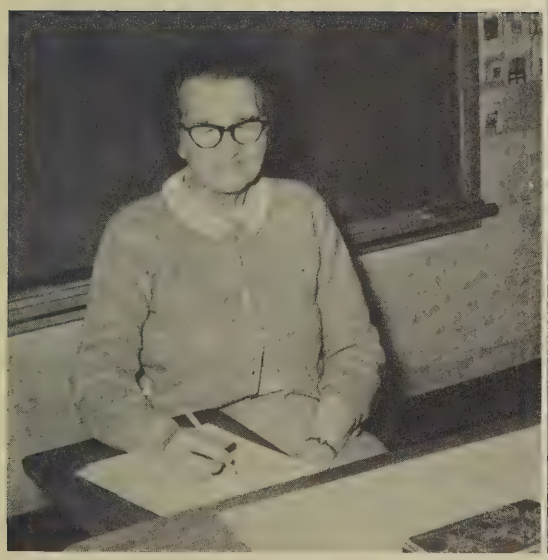
Dedication

All in the school know her and love her - those who have enjoyed the privileges of her classes and all others as well. From associations with her each has gained a respect for knowledge; an appreciation of her warm personality. Her willing hands and eager heart have reached unto the least.

As a token of their appreciation and esteem, the 1969 FIGHTING EAGLE Staff of George Hildebran High School dedicate this

1969 Fighting Eagle to

MRS. ZENIE A. LUTZ



WANDA SUE CHAPMAN

In Memory

Wanda Chapman's death came during the summer of 1968. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chapman of Connelly Springs, North Carolina.

Wanda was in the eighth grade and would have been promoted to high school that year, but that day never came for Wanda.

Wanda was like a ray of sunshine and always had a big smile for everyone.

With sympathy to her family and her friends, the Annual Staff of George Hildebran School places the 1969 Fighting Eagle in memory of Wanda Sue Chapman.

DEATH, BE NOT PROUD

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow
From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee do go -
Rest of their bones and souls' delivery!
Thou'rt slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we awake eternally,
And Death shall be no more: Death, thou shalt die.
